The 19th December 1936.

No. 8539-P.—The following notification, issued by the Government of India, is republished for general information.

By order of the Governor,

P. T. MANSFIELD,

Chief Secretary to Government.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

New Delhi, the 17th December 1936.

No. F.-69/8/36-Public.—The following message addressed to the Civil Services by His Majesty has been received from the Secretary of State for India for communication to all Members of the Civil Services in India. “I desire on my accession to the Throne to express to all grades of the Civil Services my appreciation of the ability and devotion with which they have always discharged their varied duties whether at Home or overseas. The record of the British Civil Service is indeed unique and I recognise with satisfaction the great position which its members have won for themselves in the life of the community. Its great tradition and those of the Dominions Services and of the Indian and the Colonial Services are well known to me and I am sure I can depend on that spirit of steadfast devotion to duty which has at all times animated them. Whatever difficulties may lie ahead I know I can rely on their lasting loyalty. GEORGE R. I.”

R. M. MAXWELL,

Secretary to the Government of India.
