- (b)* a ruler or a subject of a State in India in respect of whom a declaration has been made under Section 96-A of the Government of India Act, or, after the commencement of Part III of the Government of India Act, 1935, under Section 263 (3) of that Act:

*The candidate referred to in Rule 2 (b) should apply to the local Political Officer for the issue of the necessary declaration. Provided that in the case of a male British subject the require ments of this rule may be waived by the Steeretary of State if he is satisfied that their observance would occasion exceptional hards hip, and the Candidate is so closely connected by ancestry or upbringing with His Majesty's dominions as to justify special treatment.

3. A Candidate must have attained the age of 21 and must not have attained the age of 24 on the 1st day of August of the year in which the sxamination is held.

4. A Candidate who is a native of India must obtain a certificate of age and nationality issuad in accordance with such Instructions as the Governor-General in Council may, from time to time prescribe*, and signed, should he be resident in British India, by the Secretary to Government of the Province, or the (ommissioner of the Division within which his family resides, or, should he reside in an Indian State, by the highest Political Officer accredited to the State in which his family resides.

5. Candidates who are not of European descent must have passed an examination qualifying for an Honours Degree at an approved University in the British Isles, or have passed an examination of equivalent standard at an approved institution of University rank (other than a University) in the British Isles, after residence as full time members for at least two academic years at such University or Institution, or at one of the University Colleges enumerated in the footnote. This requirement will not be enforced in full until the examination of 1939.

In order to be eligible to compete at the examination in 1937 and 1938 Candidates who are not of European descent and who have not obtained the academic qualifications stated above must, in the case of Candidates competing in 1937, satisfy the condition as to residence for the academic year 1936-37, and in the case of Candidates competing in 1938, for the academic years 1936-37, and 1937-38 and must throughout have been engaged in reading for an Honours Degree or an approved alternative.

Candidates will be required to produce a certificate from the authorities of the

12. In Section B a Candidate who wishes to offer subjects the aggregate value of which exceeds 700 marks must name a subject to be valued on a reduced maximum in order to bring the aggregate to 700. This option cannot be exercised by a Candidate who can reduce his aggregate to 700 by omitting one or more of the subjects he proposes to offer.

13. The following restrictions apply to particular subjects in Section E.

International Relations (25), may not be taken by a Candidate who offers European History, Period, 3 (S_j, or Constitutional Law (12).

Greek Literature (60), may be taken only by Candidates who offer Greek Translation (57), and Latin Literature (64) only by those who offer Latin Translation (61).

In subjects 68 to 87 the history or literature paper associated with a language may be taken only by candidates who offer the language itself for examination.

A Candidate who offers one or more of the subjects French History (68), German History (71), Spanish or Italian History (74), Russian History (77), may not offer either subject 7 (European History, Period 1 or Period 2) or subject 8 (European History, Period 3).

12 5.

14. A Candidate desiring to offer Experimental Psychology (22), or any of the subjects 37 to 48 must produce evidence satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners of laboratory training in an institution of university rank. For Astronomy (36), Engineering (49), Geography (50), and the Physical Anthropology branch of Special Anthropology (52), other equivalent training will be required. There will be no laboratory test as part of the examination.

15. From the marks assigned to Candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

16. Moreover; Candidates whose handwriting is not easily legible will suffer a further deduction of marks on that account.

17. Candidates must obtain such a mark in the viva voce (subject 4) and such an aggregate of marks in the written tests as to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners.

18. A list of the Candidates shall be made out in order of their proficiency as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each Candidate, and in that order, so many European Candidates and so many Candidates of Indian domicile or descent, up to the determined number of appointments for each of these groups; as are found by the Civil Service Commissioners to be qualified by examination in accordance with Clause 17, shall be designated to be Probationers for the Indian Civil Service, provided that they appear to be duly qualified in other respects.

Should any Probationer become disqualified, the Secretary of State for India will determine whether the vacancy shall be filled or not. 19. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made in the handwriting of the Carddate, at such time and in such manner as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissionrs.
