NOTICE TO PUBLISHERS.

To carry out fully and intelligently the New Primary School syllabus of North Orissa a new Teachers' Handbook of Method and Organisation was planned before the separation of Bihar and Orissa. This was to be in the form of separate sections by specialists on their subjects, but published uniformly on paper of royal octavo size so that they could be kept together in a container. Under this system it will be possible to replace cheaply any particular section when a better work is forthcoming. The sections required are given below. The approximate number of pages suggested is given against each:—

I The aim of the primary school and the nature, physical and mental, of the child	(30)
II The first two years	(60)
III Mother tongue teaching	(50)
IV Arithmetic	(50)
V Story telling	(20)
VI The teaching of environment	(20)
VII Physical training, games and drill	(30)
VIII Handwork and Drawing	(30)
IX Primary School organisation	(40)
X The special problem of teaching more than one class at a time					(30)
XI Needle work and adaptations of the syllabus for girls' schools					(20)

2. In addition to the Teacher's Handbook of Method and Organisation the following handbooks were also considered necessary for primary school teachers:—

A book of stories.

A book on the environment of an Indian village

A handbook for the teaching of the geography of Orissa and India.

3. The work has made some progress, but the following books are still wanting and manuscript or typescript drafts of these may be submitted for the approval of the Orissa Text-Book Committee by publishers:—

1. A book on the environment of an Indian village.

2. A handbook for the teaching of the geography of Orissa and India for classes IV and V, as notified before in the Orissa Gazette of the 18th June 1937.

3. Sectional Handbooks on Method and Organisation:—

(a) Physical training, games and drill;

(b) Handwork and drawing;

(c) Needlework and adaptations of the syllabus for girls' schools.

4. Outlines of requirements for all sections of the Handbook of Method and Organisation may be had from the Director of Public Instruction, Orissa, on payment of Re. 1. Outlines for the other handbooks may also be had from the same at a price of Re. 1 each.

5. Two special kinds of reading books for boys and girls in classes IV and V are also required and drafts may be submitted to the Orissa Text-Book Committee for approval—

(1) A Geographical Reader containing also matter connected with village uplift and agriculture.

(2) A Historical Reader.

Outlines of the required contents of these two types of readers can be obtained at Re. 1 from the Director of Public Instruction, Orissa.

H. DIPPIE,

Director of Public Instruction, Orissa.
